

Beat: News

Georgia man charged with federal hate crimes for two racially motivated shooting

Larry Edward Foxworth, 48, Jonesboro, GA

Atlanta, Georgia, 19.05.2022, 18:01 Time

USPA NEWS - Larry Edward Foxworth has been charged with two counts of committing a federal hate crime and discharging a firearm in furtherance of a crime of violence for repeatedly firing a pistol into two convenience stores last summer near his home in an attempt to kill victims based on their race, color or national origin.

"No person should be afraid to shop or go to work in our community. Nor should people have to worry that they may be violently attacked because of the color of their skin," said U.S. Attorney Ryan K. Buchanan. "Combatting hate crimes continues to be among the Department of Justice's top priorities. In this district, allegations of criminal activity fueled by hate and racism will always merit our full attention."

"Hate-fueled violence has no place in a civilized society," said Assistant Attorney General Kristen Clarke of the Justice Department's Civil Rights Division. "Thankfully no one was injured by the conduct alleged in this case, but the Justice Department is committed to using all the tools in our law enforcement arsenal to prosecute allegations of hate crimes."

"Hate crimes are the top priority of the FBI's Civil Rights Program, due to the damaging impact they have on victims and entire communities," said Keri Farley, Special Agent in Charge of FBI Atlanta. "This office will use every resource available to ensure that criminals committing bias-motivated violent crimes are held accountable."

According to U.S. Attorney Buchanan, the indictment, and other information presented in court: Foxworth is charged with repeatedly firing a pistol in an attempt to kill customers and employees of two Jonesboro convenience stores. Although the separate shootings occurred around 2:30 a.m., on July 30, 2021, both stores were open for business. The indictment alleges that Foxworth, who is white, was motivated to shoot into the stores because of the perceived race, color, or national origin of the people inside the stores.

Foxworth is charged with violating the Matthew Shepard-James Byrd Hate Crime Prevention Act. The Act, passed in 2009, makes it a federal crime to willfully cause bodily injury, or attempt to do so using a dangerous weapon, because of the victim's actual or perceived race, color, religion, or national origin. The Act also extends federal prohibitions to certain other crimes committed because of the actual or perceived race, color, religion, national origin, gender, sexual orientation, gender identity, or disability of the victim.

Larry Edward Foxworth, 48, of Jonesboro, Georgia, was indicted on May 17, 2022. Members of the public are reminded that the indictment only contains charges. The defendant is presumed innocent of the charges, and it will be the government's burden to prove the defendant's guilt beyond a reasonable doubt at trial.

This case is being investigated by the Federal Bureau of Investigation and the Clayton County Police Department.

Assistant U.S. Attorney Brent Alan Gray and Trial Attorney Alec C. Ward of the Justice Department's Civil Rights Division are prosecuting the case.

Thank you for reading my article. These are merely my thoughts and insights based on the facts. I use only verified sources. No fake news here. I write about a variety of subjects, mainly things I want to research and know more about. You can check out my website – Small Village Life at smallvillagelife.com, where I share useful articles and news.

Wendy writes for the United States Press Agency and is a former columnist with the Fulton County Expositor, Wauseon, Ohio.

Source: Department of Justice, U.S. Attorney's Office, Northern District of Georgia press release May 18, 2022

Article online:

<https://www.uspa24.com/bericht-20809/georgia-man-charged-with-federal-hate-crimes-for-two-racially-motivated-shooting.html>

Editorial office and responsibility:

V.i.S.d.P. & Sect. 6 MDStV (German Interstate Media Services Agreement): Wendy Westhoven

Exemption from liability:

The publisher shall assume no liability for the accuracy or completeness of the published report and is merely providing space for the submission of and access to third-party content. Liability for the content of a report lies solely with the author of such report. Wendy Westhoven

Editorial program service of General News Agency:

United Press Association, Inc.
3651 Lindell Road, Suite D168
Las Vegas, NV 89103, USA
(702) 943.0321 Local
(702) 943.0233 Facsimile
info@unitedpressassociation.org
info@gna24.com
www.gna24.com